

Award Certificate

This award certificate recognizes kids who strive to excel in learning and practicing honorable behavior. Their willingness to improve contributes to healthier mind development and fosters more meaningful encounters with friends, family, and others. Such behavioral learning is essential for creating a more peaceful world.

The types of behavioral effort that we are especially honoring in this certificate are:

1. Understanding and reducing harmful emotional reactions.
2. Looking for ways to be helpful and friendly toward others.
3. Recognizing and avoiding possible danger.
4. Alerting others of possible danger.
5. Carefully obeying adult rules and supervision.
